

INTERNATIONAL YOUTH ART EXCHANGE 2009 PROGRAM ANNOUNCEMENT

*The World Awareness Children's Museum extends an open invitation to students and educators worldwide to join other young artists around the world by participating in the International Youth Art Exchange, an exciting and prestigious intercultural art exchange program
...now in it's 22nd year!*

2009 ARTEX THEME

CHANGE:

Your World—Our World

ARTeX creates a wonderful opportunity for your students as we look worldwide for drawings and paintings which explore this theme with unlimited interpretation—Change: Your World—Our World...what are youth around the world experiencing?changes in one's life, whether humorous or sad, changes in their environment, city or village, changes from old traditions or changes in the world at large....a drawing or painting that reveals something important in his or her life. .

All student participants receive a Certificate of Recognition and are eligible for the final judging to be included in the World Awareness Children's Museum's United States Permanent Art Collection. Additionally, their art, if selected, will be exchanged with art from non-US countries.

DEADLINE FOR AWARD ELIGIBILITY

APRIL 1, 2009

Please see attached materials for additional program information, submission forms and program requirements or go to the ARTeX section of www.worldchildrensmuseum.org.

World Awareness Children's Museum

89 Warren Street • Glens Falls, NY 12801 • Phone: 518-793-2773
www.worldchildrensmuseum.org • e-mail: art@worldchildrensmuseum.org